Important notes regarding your superannuation transfer request

Things you need to consider

When you transfer your superannuation from one fund (OLD Fund) to another fund (NEW Fund), your entitlements under the OLD Fund may cease. You need to consider all relevant information before you make a decision to transfer your superannuation. If you ask for information, your superannuation provider must give it to you. Some of the things you may consider are:

- Fees – your OLD Fund must give you information about any exit or withdrawal fees. If you are not aware of the fees that may apply, you should contact your OLD Fund for further information before completing this form. Defence Bank Super does not charge any entry fees on your transfer in, however buy/sell spreads apply. Differences in fees funds charge can have a significant effect on how much money you will have to retire on. For example, a 1% increase in fees may significantly reduce your final benefit.

- Death and disability benefits – Your OLD Fund may insure you against death, illness or an accident which leaves you unable to work. If you choose to leave your OLD Fund, you may lose any insurance entitlements you have. The terms and conditions of the insurance offered by Defence Bank Super may be different to those offered by your OLD fund.

Important Tax File Number (TFN) information

- You are not required by law to provide your TFN to your superannuation fund. However, if you do not provide your TFN, we will not open an account for you as it is a condition of membership of the CUBS Superannuation Fund that you provide your TFN.
- If you do not provide your TFN, your account may be taxed at the highest marginal tax rate plus the Medicare levy on contributions made to your account in the year, compared to the concessional tax rate of 15%. Your fund may deduct this additional tax from your account.
- If your superannuation fund does not have your TFN, you will not be able to make personal contributions to your superannuation account. Choosing to quote your TFN will also make it easier to keep track of your superannuation in the future.
- Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, your superannuation fund is authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. The TFN may be disclosed to another superannuation provider, when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request otherwise in writing.

Future employer contributions

Using this form to transfer your benefits will not change the fund to which your employer pays your contributions and may close the account you are transferring your benefits from.

If you wish to change the fund into which your contributions are being paid, you will need to speak to your employer about Choice or download the form from our website at www.defencebank.com.au
