Certified Identification documents

As a result of legal and other requirements, we require verification of the identity of members in certain circumstances including where a change of member details is requested, to safeguard member benefits. The safest and quickest option is to provide certified proof of identity. Any documents you provide must be certified as true copies by a person authorised to certify documents.

Below is a list of documents that we will accept.

A certified copy of one of the following documents ONLY:

- Driver's licence issued under State or Territory law
- Australian Passport
- Card issued under a State or Territory law, for the purpose of proving a person's age, containing a photo
- Foreign passport that contains a photo and the signature of the member (and translated by an accredited translator if in a foreign language)

OR

A certified copy of one of the following documents:

- Birth certificate issued by a State or Territory
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth
- Pension card or health card issued by Centrelink that entitles the person to financial benefits

AND

A certified copy of one of the following documents:

- A social security notice issued by the Commonwealth, State or Territory in the past 12 months containing your name and residential address which records financial benefits provided to you
- Notice issued by the Australian Tax Office within the past twelve months that contains your name and residential address and records debt payable by you
- A Rates or Utilities notice issued in the last 3 months containing your name and residential address and recording the provision of services to you/your address

Make sure your documents are correctly certified:

All copied pages of ORIGINAL supporting documents or proof of identity documents need to be certified as true copies by an individual approved to do so. They must:

- Sight the original and the copy and make sure both documents are identical, then
- Make sure all pages have been certified as true copies by writing or stamping 'certified true copy', then

Sign, print their name, qualification (eg, Justice of the Peace etc) and date.
